"ALL THINGS REAL ESTATE"* to do live broadcast at San Miguel Chapel for National Preservation Month

Who: The "All Things Real Estate" (ATRE) radio show, with co-hosts Rey Post, Associate Broker with Sotheby's International Realty and Steve Riemann of Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, will be interviewing Cornerstones Community Partnerships directors Robin Jones and Jake Barrow on the history of their organization, the importance of preservation, and the work involving San Miguel Chapel, the Oldest Active Church in the U.S. Included in this interview will be Jeff Pappas State Historic Preservation Officer who will speak about the importance of National Preservation Month, community members involved in the preservation of San Miguel, and St. Michael's High School representatives (who own the church).

What: in recognition of National Preservation Month, Rey Post will be discussing preservation on the local and national scale with various members of preservation organizations and with "friends of San Miguel," parish, St. Michael's High School Alum, and the volunteers who have worked the last four years of repair and replastering the Chapel with adobe. During the two hours, special photographs of the Chapel will be shown on SantaFe.com, and visitors to the site will be offered free pizza by Upper Crust Pizza. This broadcast is a chance to learn about and celebrate National Preservation Month, explore the history of San Miguel Chapel, and support Cornerstones Community Partnerships as they launch into year 28 of working with communities in the southwest to preserve historic sites and cultural traditions. Small adobe brick candle holders will be available for sale to raise funds.
