

ALL THINGS REAL ESTATE

Marks 14-Year Anniversary On June 4

SANTA FE, NM, May 31, 2023

On June 4, the “All Things Real Estate” (ATRE) radio show is marking 14 years of offering timely real estate news and commentary to home owners, buyers and sellers in Santa Fe and across the nation.

ATRE is also comprised of a website and blog.

Launched in June 2009 by Rey Post—a Santa Fe-based Associate Broker with Sotheby’s International Realty®—the ATRE radio program airs each Sunday (12-1pm Mountain Time) on KTRC 1260AM and 103.7FM, and streams to a global audience on SantaFe.com as well as via the “Listen Now” link at the ATRE website.

In April, the ATRE radio show moved from being a “live” broadcast, to a professionally produced podcast that is pre-recorded the week before each Sunday airing. Post hosts the ATRE radio show on the first and third Sunday of each month, while Steve Riemann, President of the Santa Fe Title Company, hosts the program on the second Sunday of each month, and Bonnie Davis—Professional Community Association Manager with Westgate Properties, LLC—hosts the show the last Sunday of each month.

“Hutton Broadcasting and SantaFe.com join many others in commending Rey and his team for delivering some of the best content that any radio show can offer to the public,” said Scott Hutton, Owner and General Manager of Hutton Broadcasting. “We are proud that “All Things Real Estate” is one of our flagship programs, as well as being one of the most popular radio show destinations in the city. Our hope is that Rey and his colleagues continue—for years to come—to host one of the finest radio shows available to consumers.”

Congratulations Rey on your 14-year anniversary and ATRE reaching this significant milestone,” stated Drew Lamprich, Vice President and Qualifying Broker of Sotheby’s International Realty of Santa Fe. “The continued engagement and depth of information you bring to our real estate community is meaningful and impactful. Your ability to serve as a thoughtful guide and knowledgeable resource to our Santa Fe market makes each and every program resonate with listeners. Here’s wishing you continued success and many more years of excellence in broadcasting.”

“Another year of broadcast excellence,” states Steve Riemann, President of the Santa Fe Title Company. “Rey Post and All Things Real Estate continues to serve as an industry leader in offering valuable information to keep consumers on the cutting edge of real estate strategies. From radio listeners around the globe...well done, Rey, and thank you. And keep it coming!” As the very first commentator on the ATRE show in 2009, Riemann is sharing his sentiment and observations on behalf of the other corporate supporters of, and commentators on the radio program.

Since 2009, ATRE has been supported by a some of the best real estate-related companies, community leaders, non-profit groups, event organizations and well-known businesses in New Mexico. Their representatives regularly contribute commentary to the radio show and content to the ATRE blog (a roster of current supporters is on the radio show’s homepage at: ATREradio.com).

Besides airing from the KTRC studio, the ATRE show has also broadcast remotely from more than 100 unique locations, including: real estate broker open houses; non-profit events and major public gatherings such as the Santa Fe Area Home Builders Association annual “Home Show” and “Haciendas, A Parade of Homes” tour; the Santa Fe Concorso rare car gathering; as well as from locations in Northern New Mexico during the 2019 airing of the show’s monthly series, “This Is Taos.”

The ATRE program was nominated in 2011 for a Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce Business Excellence Award; was designated in 2020 a national “Newsmaker” (in the Trendsetter category) by RISMedia, the #1 source in the U.S. for residential news and information; and has been profiled in multiple media stories, as well as the corporate newsletter of Sotheby’s International Realty®.

How The ATRE Show Has Grown:

The ATRE show has grown from solely focusing on real estate issues, to a program that now offers timely business, community, cultural, entertainment and non-profit commentary (always with a thread of real estate running through each broadcast). Rey and his collaborators use the ATRE show as a place to create a “story” about a variety of issues, offering themes around special calendar dates, and events that enhance the show’s content for its listeners. Rey has also used the show to offer useful information to listeners on a variety of current happenings. Over the past few years, these messages have included: supporting the value of COVID-19 vaccines and boosters; the ways to support the people of Ukraine; and how to lend assistance to New Mexicans impacted by fires occurring in the state in the spring of 2022. The radio show has been honored to feature not only some of the best in the real estate trade, but also a variety of non-real estate personalities. To illustrate the diverse content the ATRE show has offered over the years, a handful of these special radio show guests include: former CIA operative Valerie Plame; movie producer and Kevin Costner business partner, Jim Wilson (“Dances with Wolves”); actors starring in the movie “50 To 1” (filmed in New Mexico); former Director of the CBS News Poll, Kathy Frankovic; Indianapolis 500 race car legends Johnny Rutherford, Parnelli Jones, and Al Unser, Sr; and former National Association of Governors Chairman, Vermont Governor Jim Douglas. In addition, since he was first elected in 2018, Santa Fe Mayor Alan Webber has been a regular guest on the ATRE program, offering timely information on business, community and real estate issues important to the residents of the city. Rey is proud that Peachtree Sound is playing a major role in creating the new podcast format for the radio show. Peachtree is one of the nation’s leading podcast production firms, working with a variety of Fortune 500 companies. Under this new production approach, Rey and his team are exploring other ways in 2023 of distributing each ATRE program, and also the option of creating a video podcast version of the show.

The ATRE website and blog have also become valuable destinations for information on the radio show’s broadcasts, as well as timely real estate, cultural and community information. The corporate office of Sotheby’s International Realty® is fully aware of the ATRE program, with the former president of the company coincidentally being at the Santa Fe brokerage office on the day in 2011, that the Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce Business Excellence Award nomination for ATRE was announced.
